

Sunday October 21, 2018

We Are Called

1. ____ are we ____?
2. ____ is with ____?
3. ____ is the _____?

Zechariah 10:2-5 For the _____ utter _____, and the _____ see ____; the diviners tell _____ and give empty _____. Therefore the _____ like ____; the people are _____ for ____ of a shepherd. My _____ is _____ the shepherds, and I will _____ the leaders, for the _____ of _____ for His _____, the _____ of _____, and will make His people like His _____ in _____. From ____ shall ____ the _____, God the _____, from God the _____, from God every _____ - all of the rulers _____. God's people shall be like _____ men in battle, _____ the ____ in the ____ of the _____' God's people shall _____ because the Lord is with His people, and God's people shall put to _____ the _____ on _____.

In Hebrews, on who are we to keep our focus?

Of what is communion a symbol?

What is our topic this morning?

What was Zechariah?

What had happened to Jerusalem in decades past?

What was happening in Jerusalem during Zechariah's ministry?

What were people doing during a time of godlessness?

What is the meaning of Zechariah's name?

With what 2 groups did Zechariah interact?

What does the word nonsense mean?

Who were the diviners?

What did the household gods lack?

Of what did God accuse the leaders?

Why did the diviners do what they did?

What had happened to many of the residents of Judah and Jerusalem?

Who is with His people?

What kind of shepherd is God?

What is our Chief Shepherd?

Who is our Cornerstone?

What does a battle bow symbolize?

Why should people step into leadership?